

Let Me Go to the Fathers House: John Paul IIs Strength in Weakness

Stanislaw Dziwisz In this volume, the popes trusted secretary speaks of suffering in John Pauls life, and close collaborator Czeslaw Drazek, SJ, reflects on how this life-experience served to confirm and authenticate the popes signature teaching on suffering and on the dignity of every person. Dr. Renato Buzzonetti describes the principal medical interventions and care the pope received during his last days. Finally, Angelo Comastri recounts the incredible pilgrimage of faith made by people from every part of the world, who wished to pay final tribute to the beloved pontiff. A fascinating book for reliving the last days of the great John Paul II: a story of courage, gratitude, and love.
