

Charles Simeon (Classic Reprint)

My chief sources of information for the following short sketch of a memorable life are soon told. First among them stand the Memoirs of the Life of the Rev. C. Simeon, by the Rev. William Cams, formerly Fellow of Trinity College, Cambridge, and till recently Canon Residentiary of Winchester; Mr Simeon's intimate friend, his curate, and his successor in Trinity Church. This book, first published in 1846, must be the leading authority upon Simeon's life and work so long as his name is remembered. My own extracts from it, longer and shorter, are so many that I have not attempted to indicate them by references to chapter and page. Next, I have consulted the late Canon A. W. Brown's Recollections of Simeon's Conversation Parties, published in 1862; a book pleasantly written, full of personal details, and supplying a picture of one important part of Mr Simeon's labours fuller than that given by Canon Cams. I have also used a short Memoir by the Rev. (Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and do not occur in the book.)
