

Prophets of Heaven & Hell 1945

1945. Virgil, Dante, Milton and Goethe. The last book written by Buxton, he addressed himself to men and women who are anxious to know more about these authors, their noble writings, their lives and philosophies, and the different worlds in which they found themselves. The works of these prophets have a timelessness that belongs only in the greatest literature and they have played a major part in history, and the foundation and furtherance of civilization.
