

Wolfs Pact

Glenville Falls, a bucolic small town nestled in Western Colorado in 1971 has thus far ignored and repelled invasion of the Peace and Love Revolution, but such is about to change. A series of gruesome murders is occurring in which the victims seem to be outside Agitators who are Leftist Radicals and/or Agents working for the Kremlin. Investigating the murders is Deputy Wolf Smith, burnt-out-before-his-time 28 year old over-educated New Jersey hippie-Cop expatriate who is disillusioned with the 60s Revolution but also still fighting the Establishment. Working with him is Deputy Sam McDonald, very right wing Glenville Falls cowboy-rancher who is protective of the people in his town, and its many dark secrets. Joining the politically-culturally mismatched Comrades in Arms is Lorena Jones, 20 year old former Miss Colorado beauty queen and now Assistant Deputy desperately trying to be one of the guys, who develops romantic feeling for the now very celibate Wolf, against the wishes and warnings of Sam, her surrogate father. The key to finding out the identity of the murderer, or murderers, and preventing the epidemic of killings from continuing requires Wolf to deal with his roots in New Jersey and his parents back in Europe, as well as Sam uncovering dangerous secrets in a town which must finally face them. A murder mystery with edge, intrigue and dark humor set in a time fraught with transition.
